Welcome to Loyola!

This guide serves as your one stop shop to know where and what is located around both the Lake Shore and Water Tower campuses. Inside this guide includes over 200 business listings from tasty restaurants, grocery stores, museums, local shops to health clubs and pharmacies. Also included is information on how to get around the city via public transportation, where to study, and what you can save on by using your Loyola I.D.

Within Edgewater, Rogers Park, and Gold Coast, you will find welcoming residents and business owners. Edgewater literally hugs the water’s edge, with miles of beaches and green spaces to relax in. Woven in the fabric of the community is a rich mix of cultures highlighted in its global cuisine, specialty grocery stores and shops. Discover your next treasure as you explore some of Chicago’s best antique, vintage and resale shop. Or experience an innovative production around the corner in one Edgewater’s many acclaimed storefront theaters.

Rogers Park is one of Chicago’s most diverse neighborhoods, with approximately 40 different languages spoken. As you might expect, the neighborhood’s dining options are just as diverse. Check out the Glenwood Avenue Arts District, an inviting urban stretch with cobblestone streets, sprawling murals, three award-winning theatres, live music venues, art studios and galleries, and more.

The Gold Coast is a luxury lover’s haven. Charming homes on picture-perfect streets, high-end boutiques, and restaurants favored by celebrity’s past and present all give this neighborhood its star power.

Loyola University Chicago’s Guidelines to Campus are focused on the safety, health, and well-being of our community as our top priority. Now more than ever, we are called together to care for ourselves, each other, and the broader community. The policies and protocols in this document are designed to support safety and our mission to provide a first-class, Jesuit, Catholic education that prepares our students to serve humanity through learning, justice, and faith.

Good Neighbor Policy: Students are expected to conduct themselves as mature and responsible members of the Chicago and Loyola communities. As such, they are responsible for upholding all federal, state, and city laws and ordinances, especially those relating to noise, traffic, parking, zoning, and consumption of alcohol. In addition, they are expected to foster an atmosphere that nurtures positive educational pursuits, an understanding and tolerance of those with different cultural and political points of view, and an environment that encourages responsible behavior.

All members of the Loyola community, including non-Loyola partners and neighbors, have the right to report alleged student misconduct to the University. All reports will be reviewed by university staff and, where potential violations of the Community Standards are found, staff will follow up on the report.
A publication for students, by students: A special thanks goes out to student workers Riley Kelly and Mia Roman for all their invaluable efforts in creating this guide for students. Ramblin’ Around content was managed by Cecilia Rodriguez with the Department of Civic Engagement in cooperation with Sandi Price, Cindy Plante, and Ana Bermúdez of the Rogers Park Business Alliance and Christina Pfitzinger and Frank Kryzak of the Edgewater Chamber of Commerce.
