CHICAGO (May 18, 2022)—Chicago's only chalk art festival Chalk Howard Street makes full return outdoor and in person for the first time since 2019, as national and local street artists, neighbors, families, and street art lovers transform Howard Street in Rogers Park into a creative canvas, on Saturday, August 27, 2022 from 11 a.m. – 8 p.m. Located just east of the Howard Red Line 'L' stop between Paulina and Ashland, this free-admission street art festival offers street squares available for purchase to the public, and includes live music, local vendors, food and drinks, while offering striking and immersive street art experiences. Chalk Howard Street is hosted by the nonprofit Rogers Park Business Alliance and Howard Street Special Service Area #19. For more information on the festival, visit chalkhowardstreet.com.

Chalk Howard Street 2022 features nationally renowned 3D street artists Amanda-lee Harris, Zach Herndon and Jessi Queen, as well as Shawn McCann, in addition to 2D chalk artist Harmony Harris and emerging artists who will create vivid and interactive chalk drawings for art lovers, families, and summer fest goers.

Following the format of the festival's 2019 debut, Chalk Howard Street this year will offer street squares available for purchase to individuals, families and groups who wish to have a creative space and draw their own chalk art, after being held in alternative forms from 2020-21 due to the pandemic, including Virtual Chalk Howard Street that highlighted local businesses, a pop-up in-person live chalk art drawing session, and a self-guided walking tour Walk Chalk Howard Street. Each square, measured at 4' x 4', is priced at $25 and includes a supply of chalk. To register and purchase street squares in advance, visit chalkhowardstreet.com.
