Rogers Park and five other northside neighborhoods offer exclusive menus for the inaugural North Side Restaurant Week March 1-15, 2024

Diverse northside eateries offer exclusive menus and exciting deals to encourage support of local businesses across six neighborhoods

CHICAGO (December 20, 2023) The nonprofit Rogers Park Business Alliance (RPBA) unites with Andersonville Chamber of Commerce, Edgewater Chamber of Commerce, Lincoln Square Chamber of Commerce, Northcenter Chamber of Commerce, and Uptown United to host the inaugural North Side Restaurant Week, beginning Friday, March 1 through Friday, March 15, 2024, which will offer exclusive menus and exciting deals that showcase eclectic tastes from dozens of Chicago restaurants. There are no tickets to this event, and participants can browse restaurant offerings in the new year at rpba.org.

Within each of the six participating northside neighborhoods, five or more restaurants will offer two menus of three-course fixed price lunch and/or dinner exclusively available throughout the week. Participants will be able to discover hidden gems with diverse tastes within each community all while supporting local businesses. Participating restaurants from each neighborhood will be announced at a later date.

Rogers Park Business Alliance is a nonprofit organization that has served Chicago's diverse Rogers Park neighborhood for more than 30 years. RPBA works to cultivate and sustain a thriving economic environment in Rogers Park, serving businesses and residents with a variety of public events and business initiatives. RPBA programs include the GROW/PROGRESANDO entrepreneurial training program, the Illinois Small Business Development Center at RPBA, annual Best of Rogers Park awards, Chalk Howard Street Festival, Taco Crawl, and the Glenwood Sunday Market farmers market. For more information, visit RPBA.org.
