

North Side Restaurant Week showcases culinary diversity throughout nine communities

For the second year, several north side Chambers of Commerce come together to highlight an array of flavors spanning the globe

CHICAGO (January 30, 2025) – Nine north side neighborhoods are proud to announce the participating restaurants in the second annual North Side Restaurant Week, running February 27 through March 9, 2025. Eateries in Albany Park, Edgewater, Irving Park, Lincoln Square, Northcenter, North Park, Ravenswood, Rogers Park, and Uptown will offer exclusive fixed-price menus for breakfast, lunch, and dinner that highlight each restaurant's cuisine. There are no tickets for this event and participants can soon browse all nine neighborhoods' offerings at northsiderestaurantweek.org. North Side Restaurant Week is organized by North River Commission, Edgewater Chamber of Commerce, Lincoln Square Ravenswood Chamber of Commerce, Northcenter Chamber of Commerce, Rogers Park Business Alliance, and Uptown United.

North Side Restaurant Week allows patrons to explore cuisine and fine dining at restaurants throughout a variety of diverse communities. The collection of north side restaurants offers flavors spanning the globe – from Argentinian, French, and Italian to Persian, Salvadorean, Senegalese, Mexican, Cambodian and new American classics.

"There is such an abundance of dining options on the north side, from fine dining to mom-and-pop breakfasts, to some of the best burger joints anywhere," said Rudy Flores, President and CEO of Lincoln Square Ravenswood Chamber of Commerce. "We don't want to compete with each other; we want to invite our neighbors as well as people from throughout Chicago to discover a new restaurant or visit an old favorite and try something new."

"The north side is home to a variety of cultures and cuisines, and each neighborhood has its own hidden-gem restaurants that have become staples," said Sandi Price, Executive Director of Rogers Park Business Alliance. "We encourage Chicagoans from across the city to venture to the north side and discover why these unique eateries are beloved by our communities."
