Rogers Park and four other North Side neighborhoods offer exclusive menus for returning North Side Restaurant Week
February 26 – March 8, 2026

For two weeks, diverse North Side eateries offer exclusive menus and exciting deals to encourage support for local businesses across five neighborhoods

CHICAGO (December 9, 2025) The nonprofit Rogers Park Business Alliance (RPBA) unites with Albany Park Chamber of Commerce, Edgewater Chamber of Commerce, Lincoln Square Ravenswood Chamber of Commerce, and Northcenter Chamber of Commerce for the return of the successful North Side Restaurant Week, beginning Thursday, February 26 through Sunday, March 8, 2026, which will offer exclusive menus and exciting deals that showcase eclectic tastes from dozens of Chicago restaurants. There are no tickets to this event, and participants can browse restaurant offerings in the new year at northsiderestaurantweek.org.

Within each of the five participating North Side neighborhoods, five or more restaurants will offer two menus of three-course fixed-price lunch and/or dinner exclusively available throughout the two weeks. Participants will be able to discover hidden gems with diverse tastes within each community, all while supporting local businesses. Participating restaurants from each neighborhood will be announced soon.

Rogers Park Business Alliance is a nonprofit organization that has served Chicago's diverse Rogers Park neighborhood for over 30 years, providing services in both English and Spanish to a broad community. RPBA works to cultivate and sustain a thriving economic environment in Rogers Park, serving businesses and residents with a variety of public events and business initiatives. RPBA programs include the GROW/PROGRESANDO entrepreneurial training program, the Illinois Small Business Development Center at RPBA, annual Best of Rogers Park awards, Taco Crawl, and the Glenwood Sunday Market farmers market—Hablamos español. For more information, visit RPBA.org.
